MASFAA’s Year End Event will be held on

June 13, 2024

TACKLE BOX BREWING COMPANY

416 Boston Post Rd E, Marlborough, MA 01752

Join your MASFAA colleague’s as we celebrate the end of the 2023/24 academic year at MASFAA’s annual Year-End Event!

This year’s event will be held at Tackle Box Brewing Company in Marlborough. Keep an eye on the MASFAA List-Serv for the start time and event agenda!

We will be doing our annual passing of the gavel as President Jillian Glaze hands the gavel to Sarah Bergeron, among other year-end celebration events.

More details to come.

The Importance of Our Community and Your Voice Amid FAFSA Challenges

3/26/2024 – Mika Lim

As we navigate the delayed rollout and technical hurdles of the Better FAFSA, Better Future rollout, it becomes increasingly evident that the strength of our community and professional associations has never been more important. The FAFSA rollout has caused frustration and uncertainty among students, families, and financial aid professionals alike. More troubling is the possibility that students who lack resources will decide against enrolling in postsecondary education without timely and accurate offers of financial aid. With technical issues complicating an already complex aid year, the need for community dialogue, shared expertise, and advocacy is more crucial than ever.
